Grade: CFL11	Date Prepared:
Directorate/Group: Adults & Children	Reporting to: Assistant Team/ Team Manager
Structure Chart attached:	No

Job Purpose

To provide practice and professional leadership, support and supervision for social workers and social care staff in adult care teams.

To uphold standards of practice for social workers as defined by Social Work England and in accordance with the BASW Professional Capabilities Framework for Social Workers.

Practitioners working in line with the Advanced Level of the Professional Capabilities Framework (PCF) are expected to provide practice and professional leadership through the development of evidence-informed practice, quality assurance, staff development, knowledge development and management, and will also help to influence and contribute to strategic development in the organisation. Advanced Social Workers make a difference by working both directly with people in highly complex situations, and by supporting staff to provide better outcomes for people who use services, families, carers and communities.

Advanced Social Worker:

Advanced social workers are highly skilled in their field of social work, are routinely involved in supervision or oversight of others and / or highly specialised practice and / or learning and development. They ensure the integration of professional knowledge, the perspectives of people using services and research / evaluation evidence routinely in their practice and promote this with others. There are three developmental pathways. Social workers may work in one pathway or across pathways.

Advanced Social Work Practitioner:

Practice with a specified user group and are recognised for their expertise and excellence, providing leadership, supervision, evidence and professional wisdom to colleagues and other professionals. They often work in situations of very high complexity. They provide constructive challenge to others at all levels in the organisation to enhance practice, procedures and policies, promote innovation and evidence-informed practice, and introduce improved ways of working into their work settings (e.g. knowledge transfer from other sites of excellence). They contribute to knowledge in their field of practice, and make use of sophisticated, critical reasoning. They both model and facilitate reflective practice and the learning of others. (Example - Systemic Family Social Worker; Consultant Social Worker in mental health).

Advanced Social Work Educators:

At Advanced level facilitate the learning of others (students on qualifying programmes, those in ASYE and those undertaking CPD), enabling them to develop their knowledge, skills, values and practice. They support and develop other practice educators in their work and identify and resolve difficult situations in respect of learning and practice development. They positively manage the interface with providers of education and training, and may contribute to arrangements for selection, curriculum delivery, assessment and evaluation. They will be able to draw on highly skilled practice, contemporary research practice and best educational practice. They may contribute to workforce development strategies in the agency. (Example - Lecturer, Trainer or Learning and Development Consultant).

Social Work Managers / Team or Practice Leaders:

Will lead, motivate and manage a team (social workers and others) towards excellence, ensuring the service provided is effective, high performing and providing high quality social work services. They ensure responsiveness to and inclusion of service user and carer views and feedback and ensure dialogue with local communities. They use quality assurance, resources and budgets appropriately, in collaboration with others in their agency and externally. They are knowledgeable about management and leadership within the public sector and in social work and develop leadership skills relevant for delivering quality in complex service and social systems. They work to create suitable working conditions for social work and promote the Employers' Standards for Social Work. They contribute to the development of practice, procedures and policy and specifically the professional development of the team they lead. They are accountable for the practice of others and provide effective supervision, mentoring and coaching to enhance the quality of practice. They use their social work capabilities and values in their approach to leadership. (Example - Social Work (or interdisciplinary) Manager and / or Supervisor (e.g. Practice Supervisor / leader; Team leader).
